This summer Harper Sheridan is looking for something new--love.

As a librarian at Morrison College and a talented amateur musician, Harper has spent the last nineteen summers searching for her passionate, authentic self amongst the writers, painters and other artists in California's diverse and fascinating Bay Area. But personal fulfillment continues to elude her.

During an intense summer romance with vibrant, young Chelsea Nichols, Harper thought she had finally found what was missing. At the end of that summer, however, Chelsea returned to her ex.

Now, it's summer once again, with all the promise of new beginnings. It's looking like a summer of surprises when Harper's runaway teenaged niece shows up in the most unexpected of places. That's when Harper realizes that not all the surprises will be pleasant ones.
