Alone In a Crowd: A Chapbook Ray Cattie

A chapbook of American poetry:

One Summer's Lament

a summer's sanguine song divine of golden hair her head towards me she angles no harm is ransomed there with earnest expectation she learns what not to be so I can no ways teach her and yet she cannot see except for stars and laughter cascading down my face constrained to swell in terror of age and fleeting grace to sleep among the heavens sweet sorrow be thy bed lie down among the angels your scarlet cloak be spread give ground to goodly autumn on wintry winds arrive in hopes of spring-like sunshine when once again you rise
