Terry Rutherford was a top-of-the-charts singer, landing hits in the country, pop, and southern gospel fields. He was also the love of Starla Rutherford's life. But he's dead—killed in a car accident. Starla has spent the past two years trying to put the pieces of her life back together again. In an attempt to rebuild her life, Starla began showing her Chows. One day at a dog show she met Larry Morgan, a flawlessly handsome man who eerily reminds her of Terry. Torn between loyalty to her late husband and wanting to move on with her life, she keeps having issues with separating Terry's memory from the here-and-now Larry. Journey with Starla as she seeks healing from her deep grief, and also seeks answers to the myriad of puzzling questions that bombard her: What really happened to Terry? Who is behind her kidnapping? Who is Larry Morgan, really? Who was Terry Rutherford, for that matter? Will she ever find the peace of mind she so desperately needs? Will she truly find joy in the morning?
