The Glorious Unveiling: An Expository Study of the book of Revelation (Volume 1) Ricky Holmes
One recurring theme that flows throughout the pages of Scripture is the imminent return of Jesus Christ. While the day and hour of Christ's return remains known only to God, the signs and details of his return are clearly outlined in Scripture. Not surprisingly, there are a bevy of questions associated with Christ's imminent return: Will Christ return before or after the rapture? Will the church go through the tribulation? What role if any will the church play in the great tribulation? Will the antichrist be a Jew or Gentile? What is the millennial kingdom and when will it be established? These are just a few of the questions Ricky Holmes will address in volume one of this verse-by-verse exposition of the book of Revelation. The glorious unveiling is written for those who have shied away from the book of Revelation, due to its unique style and first-century symbolism. It seeks to lessen the mystique and intimidation associated with the book of Revelation, so that believers of various levels of the Christian experience can partake of the blessings promised to those who read it.
