The Many Walks of Life Randy Blalock

Faced with a personal challenge, the main character reflects back on the many walks of life he has taken. The author takes us back to life in and around Atlanta, Georgia as it was in the 50's, 60's, and 70's and how the people he has met in his life have molded him into the person he is today. Along the way he meets a kind woman who plays, perhaps, the biggest role to date in his life. The story is told mixed with humor and tears as he deals with a father who has not always been the dad he so desperately wanted.
