He Knows My Name Jennifer Smith

The perfect family...two very young children...their first home...lives full of excitement for the future. Then a frightening diagnosis of an incurable condition and no medical treatment available. Was there help anywhere? Mrs. Smith shares her struggle coping with a chronic disease. Not knowing what the future may hold, she accepts an invitation to a prayer meeting where her life is forever changed. Doctors in her home state all treated Multiple Sclerosis in the same manner, steroid pills. But she is led to a world class health facility to have what some considered an experimental treatment. Did you know God hears your prayers as soon as you speak them? He will soften hearts, open doors, change circumstances...just call Him and He will answer. He knows your name.
