An Adaptation of William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet David J. Andalora

Whether you're a student desperately seeking help with Shakespeare, a teacher trying to spark interest in "The Bard" in the classroom, a homeschooling parent looking for resources, or just a person who feels you never quite 'got' Shakespeare the first time around, this adaptation of Romeo and Juliet was written with you in mind. Understand the play the way Shakespeare's audience did in the 1600's! This adaptation has been used in classrooms with students, with remarkable results! Read it, and see why teachers have dubbed it "better than Barrons!" Other titles in this series include adaptations of Macbeth, Julius Caesar, and Hamlet.
