Most of us have experienced losing someone that we loved dearly. And in the midst of our grief we have wondered why they were taken from us and mourned the end of their life. But what if death was not the end? What if our loved ones were still alive somewhere? What if the very essence of who they were was around us and we could communicate with them whenever we wanted? Combining information from her research, Archangel Azrael and the Spirits themselves, Hypnotherapist and Spiritual Teacher Donna Watkins takes you on a journey through life after death and what happens to your loved ones after they cross over to the Other Side. There is an afterlife and your departed loved ones live it in a world that is just as real as this one and has been described many, many times. Those who inhabit the Spirit World communicate with us all of the time; just in a different way that requires a little interpretation. This book will teach you about how your loved ones in the afterlife send you signs and messages to give you comfort. It teaches you what those Signs from Heaven are and how to read them so that you can continue to experience their love-a love that never dies. There is also an exercise for contacting a loved one in the Spirit World.
