The Military Heritage of Britain and Ireland Martin Marix Evans

First published in 1998 this gazetteer of Britain's military sites has been revised. Arranged geographically and including road maps, historical maps showing battle positions, and side panels displaying opening hours, the book provides a vigorous tour through British and Irish military history from the distant past through to the world wars of the 20th century. The entries are matter of fact without much discussion or detail but they suggest places to visit in each county and identify the locations of battles, war cemeteries, military installations and castles.
