Bots, Come! Will Schmitz

Bots are everywhere, so you'd best get used to them.

They have permeated the farthest extents, constructing your future and recreating the past, performing tasks of complexity with a precision and elegance that no "bio" can hope to match. Special talents? Not like them. High IQ? That's what you think. Sex machine? Ha! They croon like nobody's business and get your dishes sparkling clean. Inexhaustible, indestructible, biocompatible—and the latest models are 100% submersible. Affordable? You bet. It'll practically pay for itself in less than three cycles.

Get yours today! (And pray it isn't defective.)

A frenetic romp through the lives of future "bots" and the "bios" lucky enough to find their place in a universe where the artificially inclined are the masters of acting natural.

Will Schmitz has fused together a collection of smart, funny and utterly disturbing vignettes of future "life" written in a fast-paced, abbreviated style that will keep the pages turning until it's far too late to pull the plug.
