People who forgive live healthier and longer and have better marriages than people who don't. Corporate executives who train their employees to forgive waste less money than those who don't. Nations and ethnic groups that learn to forgive stop trying to destroy one another. So, why do employers still lose billions of dollars to petty squabbles in the workplace? Why are Palestinians and Israelis still killing one another? Why do millions of people still suffer needlessly from stress-related sicknesses and infirmities caused by unforgiveness? Because we lack understanding and courage. The purpose of this little book is to remove one of those obstacles.
