A Fun, Standalone Contemporary Romance with No Cliffhanger

Miranda Skye is your average twenty-three-year-old, curvy young waitress. She is the second child in a family of five children, headed by a single father struggling to make ends meet as an insurance salesman. She spends most of her day working and shares a room with two of her sisters, so when her father invites her out camping with his best friend, Howard Travis, she jumps on the chance. Howard's life is on a downward spiral – after losing his job in the market crash, his wife suffers a miscarriage, and leaves him. He is now a drunk and a gambler, a shadow of the man he used to be. Little do they know, one glorious, steamy night is about to change the unlikely pair's lives forever.
