The race is not to the swift Fred C H Lovemore

Behind me I hear the fateful footsteps, the heavy breathing, the sound of someone in strained labour, approaching like a doom, and I cannot escape the awful sound. A form manifests beside me. Momentarily, we hang side by side. The wraith beside me moves relentlessly ahead ... and I am relegated to the lower station.

Then the beloved face, and her voice: 'Second place in the race but first among the elect, for this race is not to the swift.'
