Revenge is sweet. Or is it?

When Everly Gray learns who killed her parents, she's ready to take revenge, but has nowhere to start. Frustrated, she makes an unplanned detour to search her murdered husband's study. When she discovers a possible location for the person behind the assassination, Everly follows that lead to the English Riviera. Things go sideways, however, when she learns someone has been stalking her and collecting surreptitious photographs since she was a baby.

In a surprising role reversal, Tynan Pierce has agreed to be Everly's backup. He gives her control over the investigation and, with complete trust, over her subsequent revenge. But something isn't right with him. Complications escalate when the investigation leads them to Ireland and to Pierce's childhood home.

Everly's feelings for Tynan, a man she's had a long-standing hands-off attraction with, throw one more snag into her mission. Revenge is finally at her ESP fingertips, but at what cost to Pierce and his family? ...and to her?
