Crash - Part One Miranda Dawson

When Emily Saunders lost her leg in the car accident that took her brother's life, she thought she was done getting close to people. She found solace in her work instead, a start-up company forged in the name of helping people like her obtain artificial limbs that could give them a shot at a normal life—or something close to it.

Then Carter Murphy walks into her life. Tall, dark, and English, he sweeps her up like a whirlwind, demolishing the walls she's worked so hard to put up and shaking her to her very core.

But as her head spins, it becomes clear that not everything is as it seems—especially Carter. A dark, dangerous secret threatens to tear them apart, a sin so great there just may be no coming back... for either of them. Can Emily escape her past and find a future with Carter, or will she succumb to the pain and doubt she's worked so hard to keep at bay?

Author's Note: Crash is a four part series and each part is around 80 pages in length.
