In her book, author Yvette M. Blake shows us that we, too, can be used to accomplish God's purposes, even though we may have a few cracks. "A cracked pot represents someone who is not quite perfect. It represents someone who has been broken at some point in their life, someone who doesn't quite have it all together. The question then becomes: Can God use a cracked pot? Can He forgive us, make us clean, and use us for His glory?" Lessons from a Cracked Pot is a collection of inspirational reflections based on critical life lessons learned as a cracked pot chosen to be used by God.
