Killian has a secret life, but he likes it. He's a writer that focuses on thrillers. He's a big name, but he writes under a pen name so he can keep his privacy. It puts him close to dangerous people without risking anything of his own. Still he finds that world exciting, if only from the fringes, but he doesn't remain there. A friend needs a favor. His sister is in danger and he needs someone to get her out of that part of town. He volunteers to help, but doesn't have a clue as to what he's getting himself into. This isn't in his wheelhouse. Still he does his best, and the woman he meets is going to change his life forever. Tina was nothing like he expected and she is interesting and intelligent and intriguing. It doesn't take long for them to fall head over heels for each other.
