David Noebel of Summit Ministries describes worldview as referring "to any ideology, theology, movement, or religion that provides an overarching approach to understanding God, the world, and man's relations to God and the world." Recognizing that many Christians have failed to develop a sound understanding of the world, this issue of Areopagus Journal provides a number of articles that aim to promote a consistent biblical view of the world in which we live. The articles deal with a number of topics including those addressing the nature of the church, the essence of a worldview, the idea of covenantal society, and the nature of human rights.

Orville Hightower:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Building a Christian Worldview. Radix. The Areopagus Journal of the Apologetics Resource Center. Volume 1, Number 2 can make you experience more interested to read.
