Lippincott's Obstetrics Case-Based Review (Board Review Series) Marie Beall MD, Michael G. Ross MD

Lippincott's Obstetrics Case-Based Review is based on real-life clinical scenarios, written in a manner that mimics “morning rounds”. This comprehensive text covers a wide range of medical, obstetrical, and fetal complications, making it your go-to source for studying for the obstetric written and oral boards.

Each chapter begins with a description of the patient at presentation and concludes with delivery of the infant. Questions concerning the management of the patient are present followed by detailed explanations to the answers.

Features include:

- Case Presentations to provide you with real-life scenarios
- Need-to-Know Clinical Pearls to highlight key take-aways
- More than 110 multiple Choice Questions to test your knowledge of the case throughout the text

Plus, there is a companion website that accompanies the text that includes an online question bank and fully searchable text. See the inside front cover for further details.
