Jake Jiles was always handy with tools. Despite his love for all things do-it-yourself, he went to college and majored in business to fulfill his parents' dream. He finally got the courage to leave his corporate job and start his "Honey-Do-4-Hire" business. Less than a year in, he's already exhausted his savings and still living at home with his mother, but he's determined to birth his franchise. Consumed with his business and fresh off a breakup, he wasn't in the market for Mrs. Right. But after completing a job on Valentine's Day, his potential dream girl Sky showed up. After a brief chat over her car dilemma, he ignored the chemistry and left without her number. But cupid and God had other plans. After a divine connection, the only thing that stood between Jake and Sky, were funds. Will Jake pursue "Love on a Budget" or miss out because the price is too high?
