Charles Dickens The Life Of Our Lord Stephen H. Skelton

All the world knows Charles Dickens as the legendary author of such literary masterpieces as A Christmas Carol, Oliver Twist and David Copperfield. But fewer of us know that he was first and foremost a man dedicated to his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Indeed, Dickens was such a devoted Christian, and so concerned that his family would better know Christ, that he wrote a secret retelling of the Gospel, which he intended only for the eyes of his family. The book was entitled The Life of Our Lord.

For nearly a century, The Life of Our Lord remained a cherished family secret—but one the Dickens family ultimately wished to share with the world. Inside this book, the entire Gospel story pours forth from the pen of a master author—from the divine birth of Christ, through the miracles and parables of His ministry, to the death, burial and triumphant resurrection of our Savior!

Now, experience The Greatest Story Ever Told from one of the greatest writers the world has ever known—in Charles Dickens' The Life of Our Lord!

Featuring notes by Stephen Skelton, along with four reflections on the life of Christ—including the Birth, the Miracles, the Parables and the Resurrection—this 52-page book is the perfect gift for your members and visitors.
