I Don't Know Much About Wine But I Know What I Like Simon Woods

"I Don't Know Much About Wine, But I Know What I Like..."

After hearing that line for the 53rd time, Simon Woods decided it was time to address the problem. Hence this book, an easily digestible and occasionally irreverent guide to the fascinating but often confusing world of wine.

It's a book aimed at all those millions of people who regularly crack open a bottle, and are beginning to ask, "What's next?".

The first edition won the prestigious Prix du Champagne Lanson Award for the Best Wine Book Of The Year. This second edition has been totally revised, and features new chapters on apps and wine bars, and more besides.

So grab a glass and dive in...
