Emily Miller is trying to find a path away from a family mixed up in sin after they tie her up and leave her for dead in a river filled with unthinkable thoughts. When she discovers that the boy who attempted a rescue on her life may have affiliations with the mob, she thinks twice about what it might mean to have his family on her side. But when the boy's father, Terrin Cosentino, a former made guy, realizes there is more to Emily's life that involves cautious threats, he and his son learn from someone's delicate mistake that they need to do what's right to save her. When the leftovers from New York come looking for Terrin, Emily's only chance out of her family ends with a hit. Will the boy rise and follow his father's footsteps to protect her? Or maybe the mob has a bigger plan for these two worthless kids. As the secrets children keep follow the unknown, they discover the repercussions of growing up as killers against the molds they were meant to be. But, like the water that breaks when a child is born, the lessons they learn begin from the start.
