The 30 Day MBA in Marketing: Your Fast Track Guide to Business Success Colin Barrow

The 30 Day MBA in Marketing gives the reader guidance on many important topics: buyer behavior, marketing strategy, products and services, advertising and promotion, distribution, pricing, managing the marketing organization, and preparing a marketing plan. There are also appendices of marketing information resources and a personal development plan. Each chapter has real-life case examples and an illustration of how marketing concepts apply to business decision-making. The author provides detailed information on how to find and analyze market data on any business or market. There are self-assessment tests at the end of each section plus a final exam paper, allowing the reader to receive a grade and "graduate."
