United States and International Sales, Lease, and Licensing Law: Cases and Problems (Casebook Series) Professor Bryan D. Hull

Covering domestic and international sales, and the codes and practices that govern them, United States and International Sales, Lease, and Licensing Law: Cases and Problems is ideal as a stand-alone text for teachers of standard sales courses as well as for those covering global issues as they relate to sales transactions. The text carefully combines cases and problems so that various teaching methods can be applied - a case analysis pedagogy, a problems approach, or a combination of the two. Clear explanations of the subject matter also ensure that students understand the basic principles before they dive into the problem-based material.

A comprehensive and solid coverage of timely topics makes this an ideal choice for your course.
