The plot of the story seems to be inconceivable, but it shares the authors genuine experiences. It describes the prosperous but bizarre scenes in New York the No.1 metropolis of the world. We step behind the counter of one of the world's best-known chain company Starbucks and discover how it all really works; we will feel its unique and colorful charm. Meanwhile, we will gain a new understanding of the so-called American Dream: there isnt merely realization of beautiful dreams; there is also nightmare in New York due to carelessness and small mistakes. You can only save yourself if you forget the past miseries and struggle hard for a better future.
