The Upside-Down Church shows that any church, regardless of size or facilities, has the ability to revolutionize its community for Christ. Greg Laurie's simple, no-nonsense approach focuses on the biblical model for local church ministry. Pastors, ministry leaders, and all Christians committed to the success of their local church will rediscover the priorities of the first-century church-fellowship, evangelism, worship, and discipleship. With helpful suggestions and practical illustrations, this is an ideal resource for pastors and lay leaders in churches of all sizes and denominations.
