Mark D. Stuart

Mark and Bob had been together nearly twelve years as committed inseparable best friends, companions, and life partners when they embarked upon a much anticipated pilgrimage to the Holy Land, "the trip of a life time," they said. Little could they have known... Shortly after arriving in Israel, Bob suffered a tragic accident and died. Mark confronted the first pangs of his grief and loss in the most sacred places of his faith. Upon returning home to California heartbroken and devastated, he struggled with how he would be able to face life without his Bob. Soon mysterious and wonderful things began to happen which showed him that it was not a life without Bob at all - only different, as Bob began giving messages that he was still very much alive, now in spirit. In "Grief Transformed: A Miraculous Story of the Healing Power of Love Between This Life and the Next" Stuart relates the touching and miraculous account of the death of his beloved partner and how his grief was overcome and brought to healing through Bob's mediation. In a fascinating blend of Christian spirituality and paranormal after death contact and communication, Stuart conveys how love is eternal and can pierce the veil between this world and the next.
