Choosing What to Sell Online: A 4-Point Formula for Profitable Product Selection Karen Brown

“What Should I Sell Online?” If that’s your question, then this book is the answer. Selecting the best products to sell online goes beyond just choosing products you like. Professional online sellers know that the big money is made when you buy – not when you sell. Therefore, profitable product selection requires many considerations BEFORE you buy products for resale, such as how to price products competitively, how to assess product condition, how to estimate profits, how to gauge product demand, knowing what to pay for products for resale, and much more. Veteran Amazon.com seller, Karen Brown, answers these questions for you in her book, Choosing What to Sell Online: A 4-Point Formula for Profitable Product Selection. Karen began selling online professionally in 2006 with about $20 of product. Now entering her sixth year as an online seller, Karen closes 2011 with a career total of over $100,000 in part-time gross sales on Amazon.com. At the time of this writing, Karen has a 95% lifetime Amazon.com seller rating from over 1,450 customer reviews. This book will give you: -a proven formula for choosing the best products to sell online. -a list of hot products online customers want to buy now. -an offer for personal one-on-one help, if needed. Let this book be your guide to building your own small fortune in e-retail. Enjoy!
