Nick Savage is a good man who appreciates the fine arts and those who create them. His patronage to the ballet pays off in spades when he finally meets the Katherine, the ballerina who has lived in his thoughts since a missed introduction months earlier. Her status with the ballet company and his fame with Roll With It make for a great story. It even benefits fellow band member and bassist Jude Blackwood and his sister Iris who also works for the ballet. As they move forward with their careers and their relationship, emotional attachments are made but not where you might expect. Will Nick finally be able to claim true love in the midst of progress and deception?
